REQUEST FOR DEPOSIT ACCOUNT
 REFUND DUE TO ERRORS

Applicant claimed small entity status on the filed Transmittal Letter, a copy of which is appended.

Upon reviewing the undersigned attorney's Deposit Account Statement for the month of July 2006, a copy of which is appended, it was discovered that even though the box was checked by Applicant on the Transmittal Letter To The US Designated/Elected Office to claim small entity status, on July 10, 2006 the Patent Office charged the undersigned attorney's deposit account for the Search Fee in the amount of $100.00 (large entity), when the fee should have been $50.00 (small entity), and charged an Examination Fee in the amount of $200.00 (large entity), when the fee should have been $100.00 (small entity). The Transmittal Letter as filed, was appropriately marked indicating that Applicant claimed Small Entity Status, and therefore small entity fees should have been charged by the Office. By charging large entity fees, the Office overcharged the undersigned attorney's deposit account in the amount of $150.00.

Also, the undersigned attorney's secretary entered the Basic National Fee of $300.00 in the appropriate box, but when she checked the box to claim small entity status, she did not reduce the fee by 1/2 to take the reduction of $150.00 for the small entity fee. Thus, applicant overpaid the National Fee by $150.00, and that amount should be refunded to the undersigned attorney's deposit account.

Even though applicant had overpaid fees in the amount of $150.00, the Office charged the undersigned attorney's deposit account for the two above listed fees in the amount of $300.00 (large entity). If the Office had charged the appropriate small entity Search and Examination Fees in the amount of $150.00, the overpayment by applicant of the National Fee would have paid for the Search and Examination fees.

In summary, the total amount that was overpaid by applicant and erroneously charged by the Office to the undersigned attorney's deposit account is as follows:

OVERPAID FEE BY ATTORNEY/APPLICANT	$ 150.00
ERRONEOUS CHARGES BY OFFICE	$ 150.00
TOTAL TO BE REFUNDED TO DEPOSIT ACCOUNT	$ 300.00

The undersigned attorney also requests that the computer records of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office be checked to make certain that the Office records accurately reflect that Applicant is entitled to small entity status.

The examiner is authorized to communicate with the undersigned attorney by email by the following recommended authorization language: Recognizing that Internet communications are not secure, I hereby authorize the USPTO to communicate with me concerning any subject matter of this application by electronic mail. I understand that a copy of these communications will be made of record in the application file. (Authorization pursuant to MPEP 502.03.)

Respectfully submitted,
